

SOCIAL HETEROGENEITY AND COOPERATION: A COMPARATIVE STUDY OF GROUNDWATER GOVERNANCE

Chantelise Pells

ABSTRACT

The presentation will discuss preliminary findings concerning the role of social heterogeneity and cooperation in a comparative analysis of two local groundwater user associations in Mexico's largest viticulture region, Guadalupe Valley, Mexico and Sonoma Valley, USA.

PALAVRA-CHAVE: Collective management; comparative