World Water Congress

International Water Resources Association (IWRA)

ABOUT US

IWRA is a global knowledge network of water experts who are passionate about protecting the world's water resources. Established in 1971, it is a non-profit, non-governmental, educational organisation. IWRA acts as a global forum, bridging disciplines and geographies to connect professionals, students, institutions and corporations.

WORLD WATER CONGRESSES

IWRA organises and supports international events. Its flagship event is the World Water Congress, which has been held 16 times since 1973. These congresses occur in different countries each time around the world. Their purpose is to:

- Share experiences
- Promote discussions
- Present new knowledge, research & developments in the sector

The World Water Congresses have identified and discussed emerging trends and global themes in the water agenda for over 4 decades.
